J. D. Lillian,

W

Your telegram
telling me of the passing from this life of George.

It seems too bad
that he should have been called away when he enjoyed life so recently.

My sincere sympathy is with you. You certainly will miss him.

I have known him so long that I feel that I have sustained a personal loss in his passing.

Philip and Grace
will surely realize that they have lost a grandfather who was a real father to them.

Sincerely yours,
Franklin Hartman
